

Scholarship Work/Trade Application

OmMama, LLC is committed to making our programs affordable to as many students as possible. We offer partial scholarships based on client need and availability of funds. We also have a variety of tasks, both ongoing and occasional, which we can offer to people interested in trading their time for classes. OmMama, LLC is a privately owned company that does not receive public or philanthropic financial support. The costs associated with offering our services are supported entirely by student fees.

To apply for a scholarship, fill out this form and mail your completed scholarship application to:
